The Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Colossians

Friday, September 29, 2006
Chapter 1:14

1. What does the term “redemption” mean to you? (v14)

The Gr. word means “to deliver by payment of a ransom,” and was used of freeing slaves from bondage. Here it refers to Christ freeing believing sinners from slavery to sin (cf. Eph. 1:7; 1 Cor. 1:30; Rom. 3:24).*

2. The imagery behind this Greek word comes from the ancient slave market. It means paying the necessary ransom to obtain the prisoner or slave’s release.
3. Did you at one time or do you now find yourself a slave to sin? (v13, 2 Peter 2:19, 1 Peter 2:16, Gal 5:1-22 esp. 13)

4. Have you been truly set free from the bondage you were born into? (v14, John 8:30-36)
5. What does “through His blood” mean to you? (v14)
6. New Testament writers use the term “blood” as a graphic way to describe violent death.
7. If Jesus suffered a violent death for you - are you willing to suffer a violent death for Him?
8. Christ bore the full fury of God’s wrath in the believing sinner’s place, and there is none left for him (see 8:1; 1 Thess. 1:10; 5:9).
9. Would Jesus bear the full fury of God’s wrath for someone and not conform them to Himself?
